C.15. Important Notes

Investors should note that all investments involve risks (including the possibility of loss of the capital invested), prices of investment products may go up as well as down and past performance is not indicative of future performance. Investors should read the relevant offering documents (including the full text of the risk factors stated therein) in detail before making any investment decision.

When entering into financial transactions with you, the capacity in which the Bank is acting will depend on the transaction

For investment products issued by the Bank, the Bank may act as principal in certain financial transactions with you. Where the Bank acts as principal in a financial transaction, the Bank may earn a spread by way of trading profit. You may refer to the Bank's disclosure on monetary benefit provided to you prior or at the point of entering into the relevant financial transaction.

For other investment products where the Bank may act as an agent for you in a financial transaction, the Bank will receive fees or commission from you. For more information, please refer to the information provided in this Fees and Charges Schedule.

The Bank may act as distributor for fund houses/ product issuers. In this case, the Bank may receive other monetary benefits or non-monetary benefits from other parties.

Affiliation of the Bank with Product Issuers

Investment products may be issued by an affiliate of the Bank, which includes, without limitation, HSBC or members of the HSBC Group. An investment product issuer that uses "HSBC" as part of its entity name is reasonably presumed to be a member of the HSBC Group. If you are in any doubt, please contact the Bank.

Independent Intermediary Status

For transactions in investment products of which the Bank acts as principal as disclosed in relevant transaction:

The Bank is NOT an independent intermediary because:

- 1) The Bank receives fees, commissions, or other monetary benefits from other parties in relation to the Bank's distribution of investment products to you. For details, you should refer to the Bank's disclosure on monetary benefits which the Bank is required to deliver to you prior to or at the point of entering into transaction in investment products

For transactions in investment products of which the Bank acts as agent / distributor as disclosed in relevant transaction:

The Bank is NOT an independent intermediary because:

- 1) The Bank receives fees, commissions, or other monetary benefits from other parties (which may include product issuers) in relation to the Bank's distribution of investment products to you. For details, you should refer to the Bank's disclosure on monetary benefits which the Bank is required to deliver to you prior to or at the point of entering into transaction in investment products; and/ or
- 2) The Bank receives non-monetary benefits from other parties, or have close links or other legal or economic relationships with issuers of products that the Bank may distribute to you.

Disclosure of Monetary and Non-Monetary Benefits

The Bank and members of the HSBC Group may receive monetary and non-monetary benefits from HSBC affiliates or third parties in connection with the origination, distribution and/or sale of investment products or the referral of services to Customers. These products or services may be issued or provided by, the Bank, another member of the HSBC Group or by third parties.

The benefits which we may receive are determined based on a pre-defined set of criteria and variables often specific to a particular product or class of products or services. In general, not all such benefits are quantifiable or attributable to specific investment transactions or services subscribed for by Customers prior to or at the point of entering into a transaction or subscribing for a service.

Monetary Benefits

Monetary benefits may include trading profits made by the Bank and rebates receivable from product issuers or service providers in respect of distribution fees, initial charges, redemption fees, conversion fees, maintenance fees, servicing fees, contingent deferred sales charges, management fees, trailer fees etc. The Bank may also receive benefits from the origination, distribution and/or sale of investment products, which are not specifically disclosed in this Fees and Charges Schedule.

Non-Monetary Benefits

We may receive and retain from counterparties, brokers, agents or other companies within the HSBC Group, non-cash benefits such as investment seminar, research and advisory services, economic, political and/or market analysis or data and quotation services. We may also enter into commission-sharing arrangements* with such parties in respect of: (a) any trades or transactions effected for or with you; (b) any hedges effected by us in connection with such trades or transactions; or (c) services provided for you in our capacity as principal (for over-the-counter transactions), as agent (for exchange traded products and securities or funds), as custodian or as nominee.

* A 'commission sharing agreement' is an arrangement whereby the Bank may agree with its executing brokers to set aside a portion of the commissions generated from trading from its account to pay certain research providers on its behalf. Such investment research is used by our portfolio managers in their investment activities.

Bank's Service Fees and Charges

The Bank is entitled to levy commissions, fees and charges for its services (including without limitation deposit charges on the credit balance of any account) in accordance with the Bank's prevailing rates notified to you from time to time and which may be varied from time to time, or as otherwise agreed with you.

We may, at our discretion, discount these commissions, fees and charges or take a lower spread depending on a number of factors, including, without limitation, our overall relationship with you.
